BEGINNING YOUR SELF-GUIDED TOUR
- This walking tour has been designed to take approximately 45 minutes to one hour.
- Start your tour at Cato Hall and follow the numbered stops.
- Upon completing the walking route, you will return back to Cato Hall.
- On your way out, we encourage you to drive along the perimeter of campus to see additional residence halls, academic buildings, and the football stadium.

OUR HISTORY
- UNC Charlotte is one of a generation of universities founded in metropolitan areas of the United States immediately after World War II in response to rising education demands generated by the war.
- Originally started in 1946 as an evening college center and named The Charlotte Center, the institution later evolved into Charlotte College in 1949, offering the first two years of college courses.
- In 1961, Charlotte College moved its growing student body into two new buildings on what has become our current 1,000-acre campus.
- In 1965, the North Carolina legislature approved bills making Charlotte College a four-year, state-supported college, thus creating the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, now the third largest university in the North Carolina system.
