Additional Requirements for Admission to the BFA in Photography		Art majors in the B.A. studio program apply to the B.F.A. degree program by taking and passing a 1-credit course (ARTA 3201) during their sophomore year. During the class, students assemble another portfolio of work and written documentation, which they later submit to the BFA Review Committees. Students may not take advanced studio courses without having passed this course and gained acceptance into the B.F.A. program.

TOTAL UNCC Hours					62

	TOTAL HOURS				124-125
*The credit hours listed above reflect the courses required for the degree. A minimum of 12 credit hours per semester is required for full-time student status for financial aid purposes. Additional credit hours to achieve full-time student status (if needed) would be determined in consultation with your Academic Advisor.
Requirement could be fulfilled by a studio, but three studio courses per semester is the maximum suggestion. It is recommended that students fulfill this requirement by taking a non-studio art related course such as art history, art education, or gallery internship as the semester already has three studio courses required.
